5.4 Alumni Engagement

5.4.1

There is a registered Alumni Association that contributes significantly to the development of the institution through financial and/or other support services

Response:

Introduction

In yesteryears, alumni of C.Kandaswami Naidu College for Men played a pivotal role in transforming the institution and fostering inclusivity among students from diverse backgrounds. Under the banner of "Old Boys," former students gathered regularly to maintain a strong connection with the college community, dedicating themselves to the nurturing of current students. Over the years, these alumni organized a multitude of activities, including donating saplings, offering career guidance, and providing financial assistance to economically disadvantaged students. Support from both alumni and staff members has helped subsidize fees for underprivileged students.

Recently, the college established a registered Alumni Association, demonstrating its commitment to fostering lifelong bonds between alumni and their alma mater. This association is dedicated to preserving the esteemed institution's rich history and traditions. Our alumni have bolstered meritorious students with medals and certificates as tokens of encouragement. Led by a dedicated team of executives and committee members, the dynamic alumni association actively engages former students worldwide, leveraging their collective efforts to advance the college's growth and development.
